

THE RIO CLUB and British Women's Association

THE RIO CLUB and British Women's Association (BWA) Social WELFARE get together to donate IDR 30 million donation to a Jakarta based Charity.

At BWA house immediately following the presentation William founder of the RIO club again confirmed that the club is firmly commitment to sponsoring such well organized events such as the BWA Fashion Show in 2018.

By donating over IDR 30 million to the charity, especially one supported by the BWA Social Welfare system RIO is offered an opportunity to do something to help those in need.

Kampung kids, a foundation that runs several social programs for children orphaned and abandoned, disabled children.

William Gray, founder of the RIO CLUB, commented "Being an adopted child myself, I have deep empathy for the less fortunate children of the world. It gives me immense satisfaction to be in a privileged position to offer support for the amazing work that this deserving charity continues to do. Our contribution is simply a way of reaching out to help these unprivileged women and children, in the same spirit in which the investment club seeks to help members families secure and protect their investments"
