

THE RIO CLUB donates 17 million IDR to the CWA Social Development Fund

In line with its commitment to charity works, The RIO Club, accepted an invitation to take part in the Canadian Women's Association's (CWA) coffee morning on June 2nd, and donated 17 Million IDR to the Association's social development Fund.

The RIO Club had been a sponsor of the March 2015 Maple Leaf Ball organized by the CWA and naturally offered, as part of their sponsorship, a pledged donation of 1250 USD to CWA's selected charities. The amount donated is to be divided equally among the three main charities, supported by the CWA, which are focused on environment, health & nutrition and education.

William Gray the founder of The RIO Club said " We are delighted to be offered the opportunity to be associated with the Canadian women's Association. The first time was in 2015. I am very sorry to hear that Stephanie, the Chairperson of CWA, is leaving Jakarta but are pleased that she has arranged for our coninuing relationship and now we and are in discussion with the new incoming Chairperson Danielle".
