MANAGER COMMENTS

The RIO Platinum Account USD recorded its fourth straight gain of the year in April, up 0.49%; this profit adding further to the returns posted year to date. Since April 2020 this account has continued to benefit from platinum's rally.

Looking back, I underlined my platinum forecast several times last year, sighting that RIO's research had pointed to platinum having upside potential, and in my opinion the metal would likely see a strong rally. My prediction has subsequently been proven accurate; the result being a net gain of 67.63% since launch. As such the average annual return now sits at 16.91% which exceeds the targeted annual return.

Looking forward, short term, I expect to see some consolidation and would predict a move back to $1,200; if correct I will reacquire the metal. As we move through the next few months the demand for platinum is set to rise and this increase will almost certainly push values higher.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

To provide a secure alternative to that offered by the lacklustre industry standard platinum bullion investment products or funds. The Platinum Account holds 100% of its Bullion assets in unencumbered and uncirculated Platinum bars, officially released by several government mints.

Platinum can be used within investment portfolios to protect global purchasing power, today this is very pertinent given that several governments are employing policies which ultimately target a devaluation of their individual currencies. As this global currency war has escalated there has been an increased risk of a currency debasement and the fact that platinum can offer protection from this event is very attractive in itself. Precious metals, including platinum, are often produced in emerging market countries, with demand coming principally from industrialised nations. The political and economic situation is, however, far less stable in many emerging market countries than in the developed world. They are generally much more susceptible to the risks of rapid political change and economic setbacks which affect precious metal prices and again provides scope for a strong upside.
