MANAGER COMMENTS

The Regular Investment Account USD has filed a gain of 5.62% year to date. As we moved through the first half of the year it had been a tumultuous ride for US stocks, but we have successfully navigated the brutal declines and banked gains as and when the market rallied. This month started well but then the market sentiment soured and came under significant pressure on Friday, the 31st, as investment professional's and investors wrestled with the latest news, new data including signs of a weakening economy following the latest US jobs numbers and President Trump's updated tariffs. The negative sentiment had given me the opportunity to acquire several stocks and add to the accounts' equity positions, as the month closed, I had raised the equity weighting to 51.02%

The Market - Trade war fears may no longer be dominating the spotlight, but beneath the surface, the global trade regime remains a moving target, with new deals, shifting deadlines, and policy lags fuelling persistent uncertainty for businesses and investors alike. But Mr Market celebrated recent US deals with the EU and Japan, the tariff story is far from over—a reality set to linger well into year-end and beyond.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The RIO Regular Investment Account is a high-risk trading platform through which RIO invests in the currency, equities and commodity markets. The Account may also invest in other high risk traded securities, where the potential gains are deemed to be in line with the risk reward ratio. The trading strategy favours a midterm investment of 4 - 5 years due to the expected short-term volatility.

Currencies - The Account provides exposure to a traded basket of hard currencies from countries with sound monetary policies. Longer term this strategy seeks to profit from a rise in hard currencies relative to the decline of the US Dollar.

Commodities - The Account's focus is directed to trading Gold, Silver, Oil and Uranium and their associated markets. The Investment Manager has over two decades trading experience in these markets during which time he has exceeded the target returns.
