

MANAGER COMMENTS

Since changing the investment strategy in January 2016 the Account has performed very well. This has resulted in very impressive numbers, producing 42 gaining months against only two losing months with a total return of 145.90% in the period. The August volatility produced a small loss of 1.13%, this simply due to the market condition. The Dow Jones lost 4.27% in the same period meaning that, although we lost a little ground, we far outperformed this investments benchmark return. The Regular Account will continue to employ the new and improved strategy, concentrating on a core number of defence stocks, such as Lockheed Martin and Elbit Systems.
